

The Aitchison Public Service Undergraduate Fellowship in Government in Washington, DC, provides outstanding students who are interested in careers in public service the opportunity to live, study, and intern in the nation's capital. The fellowship offers a stipend of $1,300 to offset the expenses of living in Washington, DC.

To apply to the program, students must submit the following items:

1. Application Form
2. One-Page Statement of Interest in Public Service
3. Record of Academic Achievement (Transcript)
4. Resumé or CV

Please submit all application materials electronically to:

Dr. Steven Teles
steles2@jhu.edu

We are not responsible for materials delayed because of incorrect addressing.

We regret that, due to the large number of applications we receive, we cannot respond to requests for notification of receipt of student materials.

DEADLINE: March 17, 2017. All applications must be received by the deadline. Applications submitted after the deadline will be considered only if spaces in the Aitchison Program remain available.
